

EDIS (Emergency Department Information System)

The EDIS is the primary tool used in the Emergency Departments to track and document on patients. This class reviews: emergency department documentation standards, tracking and moving patients through the different areas, status events, documentation tools and formats, as well as a facilitator lead case scenario for exposure and practice with the system.

Target Group:

- Emergency Department (ED) staff
- Level IV nursing students with clinical placements in ED