

These SPH Nursing Orientation sessions provide a standard of basic skills and program content for new nursing staff. They also provide Information and hands-on learning opportunities about policies, procedures and technology relevant to HHS and specifically St. Peter's Hospital site. The orientation checklist supports the unit-based preceptors as they work with new staff, by providing a standard baseline for knowledge and skills.

